CASSIE HACK

SLASHER SLAYER

When Cassie attacks an adjacent figure with her normal attack, roll 1 additional die for each of the following that is true:

- Cassie was not adjacent to the defending figure at the start of her turn.
- there is at least one Wound Marker on this card.
- the defending figure is a Slasher.

HACK/SLASH

Whenever a figure you control receives one or more wounds from an enemy figure's special power that is not a special attack, if that enemy figure is engaged with Cassie, it receives one wound.
